

Don't Cry Out

Shiny Toy Guns

I don't get you . .
I can't forget what you've forgotten
All along
I've never been so alone

[B-section]
Don't Cry Out
Cease Fire

I was pretending
Your secret kiss of confidence
Was my escape
The perfect game to play...

[Chorus]
Ten nine eight and I'm breaking away
I'm all dressed up and I'm ready to play
Seven six five four and I'm all over you
Counting three two one and I'm having fun...

Your fascination
With naked walls of silk and skin
With no conditions
I needed you to notice....
That's all I wanted
