

Weather Girl

Shiny Toy Guns

You're an uptown falling down
West end girl trying to see yourself
Running in a number one
Shoot 'em up

Race to edge of the world
To the edge of the world
Knocking down
Waking up

You're a breaking girl
Hearts stop and seize
Making love in the weather
Making moves together

Staying close forever
Riding in our cars
From the Moon to Mars
Everyday, every night

Becomes a thousand hours
Come and follow you
Follow down to excess
Return to righteousness

Dancing late at night
Hunting high and low
With your pretty pink bow
Weather girl, where did you go?

Girlfriend, I really need you
Don't go, don't go
Girlfriend, I really miss you
Don't go, don't go

Never making hesitation
Making everyone hold their breath
Criss-cross over miles of eyes
Ending looks shooting over

The heads are turning
Your shadow of death
You're ready for this

Weather girl, where's your forecast?
Set the signal
Raining fire from the angels
Through the eye of a needle

Making moves, making stars
Falling faster than the start
Of the end of the world
You're the breaking girl

Channel X, channel 7
Super static television
We're waiting for

The first broadcast from you

You'll never go too far
There's no stopping the show
Where did you go?
