

After the Rain

Shirley Bassey

After the rains have gone
Something inside me
I know is dying for you
The sleet and the snow
Does this mean I know the way
After the rains have gone
Something inside me cries
What's behind that door
This girl just can't take it anymore
This girl just can't take it anymore
After the pain has gone
I finally open my eyes
Not crying anymore
We drifted apart
It's broken our hearts surviving
After the rains have gone
Something inside me cries
What's behind that door?
This girl just can't take it anymore
This girl just can't take it anymore
After the rains have gone
Something inside me cries
What's behind that door?
This girl just can't take it anymore
This girl just can't take it anymore
Oh, I just can't take
Got my love, don't want to fake
This girl just can't take it anymore
This girl just can't take it anymore
This girl just can't take it anymore
