

Good, Bad but Beautiful

Shirley Bassey

I've seen a man help a friend
When he's down
And put him back on his feet
I've seen a man kick a man when he's down
In a lonely street
But I've seen the face of a child
When he's lying sound asleep in bed
And I've seen the sun go down when the world is red

I've seen good, and I've seen bad
But I've seen beautiful
I've seen right and I've seen wrong
But I've seen love

Life is good and life is bad, but very beautiful
And if you live it right
You'll fill your world with love

I've seen a boy take the hand of a girl
And lead her to his heart
I've seen a man break the heart of a girl
And leave her sad
But I've seen the love in the eyes of a man beside me
Yes, and I've seen the world the way that makes me glad

I've seen good, and I've seen bad
But I've seen beautiful
I've seen right and I've seen wrong
But I've seen love

Life is good and life is bad, but very beautiful
And if you live it right
You'll fill your world with love

I've seen good, and I've seen bad
But I've seen beautiful
I've seen right and I've seen wrong
But I've seen love

Life is good and life is bad, but very beautiful
And if you live it right
You'll fill your world with love

Your world with....
LOVE!
