

I Only Want Some

Shirley Bassey

I don't want all your love
I only want some
I don't want all your love
I only want some

I don't want very much of it
I just want the taste and the touch of it
I don't want all your love
I only want some

I won't take all your time
I only want some
I won't take all your love
I only want some

Just want a moment starting from
Well right now baby 'til kingdom come

I don't want all your love
I only want some
I don't need all your kisses
To make my temperature mount
So save the goodnight ones and all the polite ones
I just want the ones that count

I don't want all your love
I only want some

I don't want all your love
I only want some
I don't want all your love
I only want some

I don't want every part of you
I just want the heart and the soul of you

I don't want all your love
I only want
I don't want all your love
I only want
I don't want all your love
I only want... some
