

Life Goes On

Shirley Bassey

Life goes on and we pass through
Days of sunlight days of tears
It's the way life comes to you
Foolish wasting precious years.

Life goes on
One day you cry
In your laugh you filled the air
See the winter paint the sky
Feel a moment of despair.

One day you trust in love
the world exists for you
One day you trust no more and then the world turns blue.

Here today, tomorrow gone
Say goodbye and life goes on...
