

Living

Shirley Bassey

La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la

I had a dream
The other day
Somehow my dream
Seems far away
A child is born
The earth had flown
No hearts were torn
We were living, living, living

La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la

If such a dream
Turned out to be
Not just a dream
Reality
Man would give birth
To peach on earth
And make his worth, while living
Living, living!
