

Someday

Shirley Bassey

Rested from hours of sleeping
We'll stay

Safely behind what we're keeping
You'll seem

Warmer than I had remembered you
Lying so close

I'll be able to feel you breathe
I could never leave
One day

When I am able to love you
I'll come

Back from wherever I've been to
I'll see you

Looking the same as you always have Lovely, so lovely, I'll cling

To the love you give
So I'll start to live
Someday is coming

If I believe it
Someday always brings

The good life you knew

Ever back to you
How I need you
Someday

All I can give you is someday
Someday

All I can offer is someday
Please say

That you'll be waiting when someday comes
Promise me this and a kiss

To keep what you are

Always close to me
Ooh I need you
Someday

All I can give you is someday
Someday

All I can offer is someday
Please say

That you'll be waiting when someday comes

Promise me this and a kiss

To keep what you are

Always close to me

Someday
