

You, You Romeo

Shirley Bassey

I blush to think how many many men have asked for a kiss from me

I blush to think how many many men I have answered no siree

I listened to my papa as a girl, I'm proper as a girl can be
I wish to thank the many many men for the properness in me they see

But as for you

You Romeo

You'll see a human dynamo who'll hug ya till ya holler uncle

Squeeze ya till you're black and blue

Kiss ya till ya beg for mercy

Haunt ya till you say I do

Oh you

You Romeo as for you

You Romeo

Oh what love your baby has for you

I blush to think how many many times my affection men would seek

Perhaps a goodnight kiss I'd allow to be placed upon my cheek

I listened to my papa as a girl, I'm proper as a girl can be
I wish to thank the many many men for the properness in me they see

But as for you

You great big sap

You've run into a booby trap who'll hug ya till ya holler uncle

Squeeze ya till you're black and blue

Kiss ya till you beg for mercy

Haunt ya till you say I do

Oh you

You Romeo as for you

You Romeo

Oh what love your baby has for you

Oh you you you you Romeo

You you Romeo

Look out

Oh what love your baby has

Oh what love your baby has

Oh what love your baby has for you
