

Gonna Get Ugly

Shorebirds

It's enough to break your brain
just from living day to day.
Can't you tell it's gonna get ugly?
Just from living day to day.
Took a walk down to the station.
Going to the big city.
Where they keep on building buildings.
The noise is almost deafening.
So let's keep buying new cars
and keep pretending we don't know what's going on.
Took a long walk through the city.
Saw people profit from decay.
And they'll just keep on making new laws
to make the violence all okay.
So let's all keep faith in the lord
and try to justify the excess that's killing off the world.
