

Some fucker comes up to me.
He says he doesn't respect me or anyone around me.
So I tell him "eat shit, sir".
You don't know anything about me or anyone around me.
Because you're fucking broken.
You don't give a shit about no one. Here we come with the flame throwers and we're burning everything you own.
We do what we want.
Because people are hungry and people are cold.
Have you ever been hungry?
Have you ever been cold?
People are hungry everywhere.
People are starving everywhere.
People are freezing everywhere.
And I know that you don't care.
