

I don't know if it's right; I did it by ear :)

I hate the way that you look in the moonlight
But if I'm mistaken I'll join you in taking
The rest of my life of my life
Oh we are inclined to destroy ourselves

But if we are open then I guess we're broken
Like everyone else one else
I said well I'm embracing your outlook on taking
To save the last dance by chance

I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love

Dear this embrace is a caricature of my plans
So head over heels is the way it feels
It mirrors romance of romance
Oh well I'm embracing your outlook on taking
To save the last dance by chance

I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love love love

I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love
I'm killing romance in the name of love love love love
