

I Will I Will I Will

Short Stack

I think I've had abit too much of you my dear,
And I keep saying I'm a tolerant soul
But does your boyfriend know I'm locked between your ear
But does he know that I'm wearing your clothes, So!

I mean this so much, it must hurt,
As I'm watchin' you watchin' you
Take off with your off with your take,

I mean this so much, it must hurt
As I'm watchin' you watchin' you
Take off with your off with your take

Close your eyes and I will kiss but not tell
I can be naughty coz i'm already going to hell
Now when you wake up i'll borrow your makeup
And when we break up I promise to wait up
All night long screaming
I will, I will, I will, I will fix you

I'm counting seconds until each and every breath
And I keep saying I'm a tolerant soul
And I swear I'll become the heart within your chest now leave me reading the signs on the side of the road

I mean this so much, it must hurt
As I'm watchin' you watchin' you
Take off with your off with your take

I mean this so much, it must hurt
As I'm watchin' you watchin' you
Take off with your off with your take

Close your eyes and I will kiss but not tell
I can be naughty coz i'm already going to hell
Now when you wake up I borrow your make up
And when we break up I promise to wait up
All night long screaming
I will, I will, I will, I will fix you
I will, I will, I will, I will fix you

Down girl, down girl, this one's for you,
I held my tongue, it screamed 'hey hey'!
The rabbit told me to love you,
And so I threw them all away

Down girl, down girl, this one's for you,
I held my tongue, it screamed 'hey hey'!
The rabbit told me to love you,
And so I threw them all ah,

Close your eyes and I will kiss but not tell
I can be naughty coz i'm already going to hell
Now when you wake up I'll borrow your make up
And when we break up I promise to wait up
All night long screaming

I will, I will, I will, I will, oh oh
I will, I will, I will, I will fix you
I will, I will, I will, I will fix you
I will, I will, I will, I will fix you
I'll fix you
