

Enemy In Me

Shotgun Messiah

I can feel my body is beginning to rebel now
Nothing I can do I'm turning into something else now
Don't know how much longer I can hide it from my friends
Alien intelligence parading in my skin

God I'm so tired I can't fight anymore
Inside I'm burning I'm losing this war

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

Whirling to the ground, ground into the world
Little tiny pieces are beginning to emerge

God I'm so tired I can't fight anymore
Inside I'm burning I'm losing this war

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

Looking in the mirror man you really couldn't tell
Feeling like I'm screaming from the bottom of a well
You were getting comfortable with who I used to be
Hate to disappoint you but it really isn't me

God I'm so tired I can't fight anymore
Inside I'm burning I'm losing this war

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

God I'm so tired I can't fight anymore
Inside I'm burning I'm losing this war

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

There's an enemy in me
Enemy enemy
There's an enemy in me

Enemy in me
Enemy in me
Enemy in me
Enemy in me
