Shotgun Messiah

alright, warming me up with your light so good, feels so right in time we'll come together again be there for me then

I am blinded, single minded all my thoughts are for you

I'm free, free to live
now that you're with me, oh free, free to go on

I love touching your body with mine your love feels so fine

I am blinded, single minded

I'm free, free to live
free, free to go on

free, free to live
free, free to go on

I'm free
