

Nobody's Home

Shotgun Messiah

Just another day livin' in a dream
Doesn't make no difference, nothin's what it seems
Had it up to here, gotta get away
Think I'm goin' crazy, don't know what I s-s-s-say

I would go insane if I had a brain

Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Nobody's home

Majorly confused, don't know what to feel
Soon I'm gonna lose it, nothin' is for real

Me, I'm just like you, I don't have a clue

Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Nobody's home

I would go insane if I had a brain

Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Weirdorama, psychodome
The lights are out but nobody's home
Nobody's home

Gettin' lovey dovey with my semi-automatic
Trippin' on acid and TV static
Civilization turned creature feature
The Jung at heart are going back to Nietzsche
Leave name and number after the tone
'Cuz nobody's home
