

Where You Come In

Shout Out Louds

Soon I'll be on my way
Time is on my side, I'm blowing away
That's where you come in
You come in

I never wanted it
And I never forced you upon it
I never wanted it
And I never forced you upon it

Sometimes you give, sometimes you take a little too much
Sometimes not enough, not enough
Sometimes you give, sometimes you take a little too much
Sometimes not enough, not enough

I make plans to leave for the city
To stay up all the night, for the sun to greet me
But that's where you come in, where the feeling sets in

Sometimes you give, sometimes you take a little too much
Sometimes you give, sometimes you take a little too much
That's where you come in
Where you come in
Where you come in
