Why did you say goodbye to me? Now I'm as lonely as can be. And as I feel a teardrop fall I hear your footsteps down the hall Walking away from me

Why did you say goodbye? Why did you make me cry? Now everyday I wonder why why, why oh why oh

You're such a haunting memory. I pray that you'll come back to me. But as I say my evening prayer I hear your footsteps on the stairs Walking away from me

Why did you say goodbye? Why did you make me cry? Now everyday I wonder why why, why oh why oh
