

I Don't Like Rock 'N' Roll No More

Showaddywaddy

Standing on a bridge a midnight
Looking at the stars and wondering How I ever made it through this crazy world of rock 'n' roll.
Cast my mind back to the days
Nights when I was tired and lonely Girls would take me make me, break me
In so many different ways.

I don't like rock 'n' roll no more
I don't like rock 'n' roll no more
I don't like rock 'n' roll
But it's in my heart and in my soul
I don't like rock 'n' roll no more.

I made it in the early sixties
Though my mind was mixed up to the point of no return,
A star of stage and screen and radio
Standing on a bridge at midnight
Looking at the stars and knowing
That I really made it
through this crazy world of rock 'n' roll.

I don't like rock 'n' roll no more
I don't like rock 'n' roll no more
I don't like rock 'n' roll
But it's in my heart and in my soul
I don't like rock 'n' roll no more.

Standing on a bridge at midnight
Looking at the stars and knowing
That I really made it
through this crazy world of rock 'n' roll.

I don't like rock 'n' roll no more
I don't like rock 'n' roll no more
I don't like rock 'n' roll
But it's in my heart and in my soul
I don't like rock 'n' roll no more.
