

The Anti-Song

Showoff

These guys can't be punk-rock
They sing about love and Brendan says they're not
But they've got egos this big
I bet that their mothers got them this gig

Because this is the anti-song
Everybody sing along, this is the anti-song
How could I ever be wrong?

Those guys aren't like me
I hate that band because they're not PC
But they won't get too far
And if they do, I'll say that they stole my guitar
