

I got off the plane and turned my phone on
So I could read what you sent me when I was 30 thousand feet above the ground that you were standing on
Next

I smoked a cigarette and started thinking
Of all the crazy things that happen flying
Like when Princess Leia died I was also in the sky
Well

How can I be sure I'm still alive?
(I'm not)
Maybe I died when Carrie Fisher died
(Death is)
Served just like it was a soda
(Coca cola)
Didn't even want it but it's complimentary

Too bad I'm gone and I won't ever see you again
Gone and I won't ever see you again
I thought we, we were higher
Higher

Pilot on the runway told us we'd been Flying with the body of a man who's Never coming back but I guess he's coming home
Next

Carried like a suitcase covered in stars
Funny kind of blanket for a cold heart
Like he's going to bed but he's never waking up
Well

How can I be sure I'm still alive?
(I'm not)
Maybe I died when Carrie Fisher died
(Death is)
Served just like it was a soda
(Coca Cola)
Didn't even want it but it's complimentary

Too bad I'm gone and I won't ever see you again
Gone and I won't ever see you again
I thought we, we were higher
Higher
(Coming down, coming down)
Higher
We were higher
(Coming down, coming down)
Higher
Higher
(Coming down, coming down)
