Sia

I love you so
When I throw you on the floor
The fresher viewers when I put my hands through you
I squeeze you dad until you take your layer breath
No new today, no new today
The pressure's rising and I won't make it through tonight
There's something more I else than the assassin tonight
Just blow me up, I'll run you down
I'll cut my rope
And when it's time for you to come

You'll have to make me
Show me I got them all
And when you let me
Tell me what I don't know
You try to take me
Your thing with the face rolled
You'll have to bend me

I love you so
I'm putting in quizzing
You take your chances when you kiss the hitman
The anamos inside of this infanitty
No new today, no new today
The pressure's rising and I won't make it through tonight
There's something more I else than the assassin tonight

Mother me want, and me love
What you do to me
New different brand

I depart, I say brand
Kill me with your loving
Kill me with your loving
Entice you, induce you
Like sugar and spice
I'll do what you want me to be
I'm the beast
I kill you with my loving
I kill you with my loving
