

You and you alone
You and you alone have the power to be the master of your life

You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to

You alone

Granted you're taking me for a sucker
When I am not
Gradually, we'll patch up mends and I'll make you see
What I've got
Apparently you're taking me for a slip on
You've gotta tie me up
Eventually you will tamper mends I'll make you see
I am enough

You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to

Obviously you're taking me for what suits you
When I don't
With slow ease I'll show you disgraced, you were on my knees
You know I won
Foolishly you're taking me for a sleeper
When I'm quite away
Evidently we've not through been me, your intense scene
And you'll now break

You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to
You only see what you want to see
You only see what you want to

You and you alone
You and you alone
