

More Than Words Can Say

Sick Of Change

Surround me with Your presence and fill me with Your peace.
There is nothing like worshiping at Your feet.

There is more to You than simple love,
Because You give it so unconditionally.

I try to give myself to You,
Which is what is required of me.
You give me back more than my eyes could ever see.

There is more to You than simple love,
Because You give it so unconditionally.

It doesn't matter what I've done,
Forgiveness is always there for me.
No matter what I do,
I will never be able to repay You.
