Breeders of Hate

My mouth, Spouts these words of anger and spite Toward the other man I'm bent out of shape, I'm feeling irate Feel that blood flow The red thats in us all Is confused with the black and white The crowd's on its feet, My message complete Breed some hatred tonight

Save your insanity! Use that for my needs Bust them up now!

Rally your ignorant minds on my own Take my knowledge And breed the hate at home The world wont be at peace Until my brother's are alone

My mouth, Spouts these words of anger and spite Towards the devil man The crowd's on its feet, my message complete Breed some hatred tonight!
