

El Paso Blue

Sick of Sarah

I'm beginning to feel just like a book
I folded some pages I think you overlooked
Words you've read, you couldn't see it
It's a beautiful, beautiful thing

More than I could ever paint
I used all the colors I stored inside my bank
My favorite shade, El Paso Blue
Reminds me, reminds me of you

This isn't what you asked for
This isn't what I asked for

You say it might be better
No, its never its never its never
You say it might take longer
No its never its never its never
And you say, oh, it makes us stronger
No its never its never its never
And you say...

If I had a choice I'd be a saint
But I am a sinner who is over it, over it
Call it a loss or call it fate
It's still a beautiful, beautiful thing

Under and in, over and out
Time takes times to weather
Give me some space and I'll pretend
I'll make you believe me again

This isn't what you asked for
This isn't what I asked for

You say it might be better
No, its never its never its never
You say it might take longer
No its never its never its never
And you say, oh, it makes us stronger
No its never its never its never
And you say...
Believe

Catch me if you can
Catch me if you can

Cause were falling and falling and falling
To pieces and pieces
This isn't what you asked for

You say it might be better
No it's never it's never it's never
You say it might take longer
No it's never it's never it's never
You say, oh, it makes us stronger
No it's never it's never it's never
And you say...
