

My World

Sick Puppies

I'm not coming back,
I'm not gonna react,
I'm not doing shit for you.
I'm not sitting around,
While you're tearing it down around us,
I'm not living a lie,
While you swim in denial,
Cause you already dead and gone.
You'll leave me out on the curb,
Just like everyone else
Before you.

Welcome to my world,
Where everyone I ever need,
Always ends up leaving me alone,
Another lesson burned,
And I'm drowning in the ashes,
Kicking,
Screaming.

Welcome to my world.

I don't care what you think,
I'm not seeing a shrink,
I'm not doing this again.
I'm not another,
Student or a mother,
To take your shit out on.
So let's see what you got,
And let's see what you're not,
And whatever else you pretend,
You've defended my intentions,
Long enough.

Welcome to my world,
Where everyone I ever need,
Always ends up leaving me alone,
Another lesson burned,
And I'm drowning in the ashes,
Kicking,
Screaming.

Welcome to my world.

So here I am again,
In the middle of the end,
The choice I wish I'd made,
I always make too late.

Welcome to my world,
Where everyone I ever need,
Always ends up leaving me alone,
Another lesson burned,
And I'm drowning in the ashes,
Kicking,
Screaming.

Welcome to my world.

My world

My world (welcome to my world)

My world

My world (welcome to my world)

My world

Welcome baby.
