

Last Word

Sicko

Misinterpret, that's not what I meant at all
Set yourself up for a fall, and you'll fall
Trip on the last curtain call
It doesn't matter if I know of what I speak
The arguer's strong if the argument's weak
It's persistence, insistence, and a nice healthy winning streak
I got the last word in, I'm happy to announce
I got the last word in and that's all that counts
Counting on you to throw in the towel before I do.
Keep talking, you can talk til the cows go home
Til you wake up and find you're alone
I went home, I went home with the cows.
I got the last word in, I'm happy to announce
I got the last word in and that's all that counts
Counting on you to throw in the towel before I do.
