

All Things New

Sidewalk Prophets

There's a place deep inside of me
No one else has ever seen
And I fight to keep the light
From reaching the darkness within me
I've been holding onto secrets
That I can never tell
Cause if I did, then you'd know
That I was really someone else
Can you forgive, will you forget
All these wrongs and make me whole again
You restore the broken, You heal the sinner's heart
You make all things new, all things new
On the cross Your love was spoken, You even wore the scars
To make all things new, all things new
You have carried all the pain
So heavy on my soul
Lift me up, and hold me close
You will never let me go
I should have know the walls I built
Were never strong enough
To keep You, from reaching me
Nothing's greater than Your love
Can you forgive, will You forget
All these wrongs and make me whole again
You restore the broken, You heal the sinner's heart
You make all things new, all things new
On the cross Your love was spoken, You even wore the scars
To make all things new, all things new
You release the chains
Of all my yesterdays
And I am not the same, Lord
I am not the same
You restore the broken, You heal the sinner's heart
You make all things new, all things new
On the cross Your love was spoken, You even wore the scars
To make all things new, all things new
From the beginning till the end of time
You love will never change
You make all things new, all things new
From the sand upon the shoreline
To the stars up in the sky
You make all things new, all things new
