

I see through the clouds, and I see through the fog!
Through the fog!
The view from above just isn't enough!
Isn't enough!

Now I see!
Now I'm hearing!
Now I feel!
No insecurity!

Once there was doubt that I would not get here!
But I believed and you believed no fear!
I held no fear, I held a feeling!
Now take notice of this human being!

So times have changed and I can honestly say
That I want you to tell me, why you won't put faith in me
And after everything it seemed to take forever
I dare you to tell me, that you won't put faith in me

Take notice of this human being!
I will be the light you're seeing!
Reeeaahhhh!
It's time to take notice!

So times have changed and I can honestly say
That I want you to tell me, why you won't put faith in me
And after everything it seemed to take forever
I dare you to tell me, that you won't put faith in me

And slowly as you take it in!
The faith you hold in hand!
Is something that will always be doubted!
And when you choose to say that you don't believe in me!
What is it you don't believe in?!
What is it that you don't hold faith in?!
What is it?! I'll prove it!
I'll show that I am worth it!
