

It Is My Time

Sienna Skies

The time has come to take my steps up to the top!
The time has come to make sure I secure my spot!
And now I'm here, I know that I will conquer!
And now I'm here, the wait won't be much longer!

Now the time has come!
To leave footprints and prove that this worlds mine!
It's my time!
I will take my steps up to the top of this world!
This worlds mine, It's my time!

Now that I'm staring back at the path I chose!
I know that I have destroyed these roads!
So I know that I'm the only one who could make this journey!

And when it comes to everything I've done!
I know now that I'm the only one!
The one who runs things, the one who shuns things!

It IS MY TIME!

Now that I'm staring back at the path I chose!
I know that I have destroyed these roads!
So I know that I'm the only one who could make this journey!

And when it comes to showing them!
Showing the undeservers, showing I truly am!
I am!
I am on top of the world!

And now that I've made it my life's slowly changing!
