

Oh No You Didn't

Sienna Skies

Watch
The vultures circling
As they attack before its even dead
In pain and agony
Have these lies already killed me
The chain links between us
Are weaking
From the strain, of your broken fantasy
Life doesn't turn out how you think it will
No need to take me out
For the kill
These words are false betrayal
Sift through your words for something real
These words are false betrayal
Sift through your words...
Your words are false, Are false
Don't believe anything you say
Cause what you say, You say
Is different once I turn my back

Take a step back,
It's not about yourself
They can help it, it's there nature now
If your scared and alone
I'll sneak through the window
Let them see through the window
Through the window

The truth rings out through these distance rooms
But it falls upon deaf ears
I am fighting
And I will fight through this
As true allies, align themselves

YEAH!

You cause more problems than you solve
Get over yourself
TRUTH take on....
FALLS take on....
ON take on....
ON deaf ears....

Take a step back, It's not about yourself
They can't help it, It's there nature now
If your scared and alone ill sneak through the window

Let them see through the window
Let them see through, Through the window
The window
LET THEM SEE THROUGH,
