Leave This Behind

Signs of Betrayal

Can't find serenity With all of these emotions They're haunting me The faces tiring It's the same shit every day With no ending

My patience growing weak Don't want the world to see This happen to me

Leave this behind Before saying goodbye

The anger changing me Another day goes by And I can't break free Seems like eternity Before all this is over And I can breath

Leave this behind Before saying goodbye

And I can't wait to break free from this Cold dark place that we call our own world

Leave this behind Before saying goodbye
