

As the Earth Spins Round

Sikth

I cant make out any roads
when everythings just spinning round
round and round
quick stop and think above those clouds
swim in the sea you believe cowards tranquility everything i seemed to see was grey dumb unfused

well its raining now can you feel the tears of now? now? now? weeping now?
you wanna say why youre waking in a well for? best look up soon before it all freezes over

why are we wondering? why are we wondering
why are we slaughtering? why are we
wondering?
who is the alien?

well its hard to row when the oat is stuck and it is snowing and i cant make out any roads

i can see you there
in the nothing snow
well its all dark now

when everything just spinning round
round and round
quick stop and think above the cloud swim in the sea you belive towards tranquility
everything i see was grey
well its raining now i can geel the tears of now now venting passion and emotion keeps us spinning round and when that is gone its a grey numb song

why are we dwondering? why are we
wondering?
wondering?

bu i looked into your eyes and i saw all wasnt right you were chasing you were chasing painted dreams

they sow snow
they dont want you to wake up what? what?
whatever!
waking up the same fold dont grow its the same as before the same as
were all wailing on the ground what for?

they turn the page so they turn the page so (why?)
i turn the page so they turn the page so (why?)

you turn the page so i turn the page
so
you turn the pafe so they turn the page so you turn the page so they turn the page so
