

Death Kiss

Silent Screams

Death kiss
Sick to the stomach with worry and distress
Inevitability at its finest
The clock is ticking until we disappear
I've never been so scared in my whole life

Death kiss, death kiss
Stains everyone and everything
And I know it's not gonna be alright
But there isn't a fucking thing I can do

I can't make sense of anything
What the fuck am I even here for?
We work so hard to ensure our future
To have it fall apart
Separate. I'll separate myself

Severed and lost
Right from the moment we are brought into this world

We are desstined to exprire
That's not your life you're living
This is your slowly dying

Death kiss,
Stains everyone and everything
And no one is safe
