

Wizard

I'm sitting in front of the blank picture, looking Old and tired, tired and old, without wings of magics

I'm alone like pain in me

a thousand years is so long a time, I'm an old wizard indeed

Bloody tears fall down to the empty hands from the strange eyes

Every sweet smell of sluts is lost in their graves
All the evil of my thoughts is my vile web

I like only my smell of false memories
But their picture, their picture is vacant
I'm alone like pain in me

wizard indeed

strange eyes

Old and tired, tired and old, without wings of

I'm alone like pain in me

wizard indeed

strange eyes
