Autumn Heart

Silentium

In the Middle of the Darkest Woods In the Silence of It's Darkling Deeps Where the Shadows Weep You Embraced Me And the Time Became Infinity So Take My Hand Child, Follow Me We'll Hide the Pain that Screams in Me

And I Shall Return When the Frost Sets the Leaves Aflame When the Tides of the Darkness Rise Again I Shall Return When All of Creation Weeps in Pain When the Strorms and the Rain Are Here Again I Shall Return Into Your Arms

All the Wounds You Bear Inside We Bear Them in Our Autumn Hearts The Words I Speak Are Soaked with Filth And Night Becames Our Enemy Just Close Yer Eyes and Come with Me The Grace of Darkness Won't Let You Bleed
