Leave The Fallen Behind

Silentium

Brothers in arms
Falling left and right
Flame of the world
Burning up bright

The machine it grinds Souls, dreams and skulls No one survives It's yearning your blood

Leave the fallen behind Just let your heart freeze It's time to bury the dead

Don't look behind
The lost souls they claim
Don't stop the fight lest we died in vain

The dark closes in All the stars falling down Let the battle begin Let our names to be known

Leave the fallen behind Just let your heart freeze There's no time for tears

Leave the fallen behind Just let your heart freeze It's time to bury the dead
