Don't Go To Bed Mad

I was wrong I admitted You don't have to put up with this no-no-no baby Can we talk to make it right Cause I don't want you crying when we lay down tonight So let me see that smile the one I like so much Come on baby let's we don't have rush Baby don't be mad I'm sorry Can't you see I apologize the blame is on me

Don't go to bed mad baby Let the pass be the pass sugar Don't go to bed mad baby Let the pass be the pass sugar

Ococo come here and give me a kiss Ain't no reason for us to be fighting like coco Girl I love you and I know you love me It's look better when you smile so won't you go that for me So let me see that smile the one I like so much Come on baby let's We don't have to rush baby Don't mad I'm sorry Can't you see I apologize The blame is on me.
