

Felix In The Sky

Silke Bischoff

i haven't seen you
for a while and now you're here
with a rainbow in your eyes
i can see your smile
and your tears
so don't tell me lies

the same as it ever was nothing changed
believe me it's true
the same as it ever was
i'm still loving you

24 hours
i'm running wild
this is the future
i'm laughing like a child

48 hours
the universe in my eyes
felix in the sky

72 hours i can't sleep
there's too much paranoia
life is cheap

96 hours i wanna die
i am falling
i close my eyes
