On The Other Side

Silke Bischoff

Do you remember slow-motion-timesWith little golden stars?I see you tumble in the streetsI hold your hand in the cinemaA piece of havenIn a rotten worldYou dissapeared in a roaring nightI c ould die
I CRY

On the other sideI'll see you againOn the other sideWe'll walk
hand in hand
On the other sideI'll see you againOn the other sideWe'll walk
hand in hand
I saw you again with tears in your eyesMy heart beats hardTime doesn't move in a pictureBut I can't live in the pastLife is ea syIf you don't care about the futureAnd it's easy to smileIf yo u din't care about the truth
I still love you
But I've changed myself
On the other sideI'll see you againOn the other sideI'll see yo u againOn the other sideI'll see you againOn the other sideI'll see you again
On the other sideI'll see you againOn the other sideWe'll walk hand in handOn the other sideI'll see you again
On the other side
We'll walk hand in hand
When I see you ...
