

All alone with a needle inside him
The only thing he can trust today
Shattered dreams and the gist of temptation
Desperation is here to stay

He's almost empty
Less aint more
He's almost empty
What is he living for

Bloody poison flowing fast
Running through his veins
But the shit from his past
Will last, will remain

He's on a desperate quest (for more)
He is unstable at best (insecure)
He will fight, and take your life today
We're taking him away
Lock down

Running faster with the monkey on his shoulder
Monkey seems to hang on to tight
Catch a break as his heart gets colder
Watch your back cause the monkey will bite

He's almost empty
Less aint more
He's almost empty
What is he living for

Agression filled with hate
Monkey he obeyed
Getting ready for the gate
Too late, betrayed

He's on a desperate quest (for more)
He is unstable at best (insecure)
He will fight, and take your life today
We're taking him away
Lock down

Beneath his exterior
He has the soul of a ghost
He seeks approval
From the one he loves the most

Blocks of logic seems to crack
Tearing down his pride
Kills the monkey on his back
On track, untied

He's on a desperate quest (for more)
He is unstable at best (insecure)
He will fight, and take your life today
We're taking him away
Lock down
