

World Upon Your Shoulders

Silverchair

All the bridges in the world won't save you
If there is no other side to cross to
When you're not feeling ugly
The world's not too much

Take the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn
Take the world upon your shoulders

Half full glasses
Lost in empty houses
When you're not feeling ugly
The world's not too much

Take the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn
Take the world upon your shoulders

Violent, big and violent
Like a thing that's big
Big and violent
A world that's big and violent

When you're not feeling ugly
The world's not too much

Take the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
And burn, burn, burn, burn, burn
Take the world upon your shoulders

Take the world upon your shoulders
Take the world upon your shoulders
