

Last Day on Earth

Silverlane

I'm counting my scars
I'm looking for answers, there's pain in my mind
I'm nobody's fool
I'm planning to leave this place of darkness
I will break free through this fatal trip in time
No one can stop me!

Drifting, I'm falling, I'm falling apart

My last day on earth
Relieving my mind
I'm leaving this emptiness behind
I'm ready to start
my travel in space
I'm starting a trip to an unknown place
My last day on earth

I am the master of my own fate
These days are over
There's no chance to return
No one can stop me!

Drifting, I'm falling, I'm falling apart

I'm falling apart
I'm drifting away
My time goes by
I'm feeling this way

He left the right way to get lost in space
He left the right way to die
