

The White Lady Part 3 - Between the Trees

Silverlane

You are alone
as you're walking through the night You're creeping quietly until you find a place that's right A place between the trees will give eternal peace to those who die
and to you

You dig a hole and you bury them into the ground as deep as you can, make sure they won't be found There's a voice inside your head, the language of the dead,
it speaks to you
That's what it says:

"YOU'RE A MURDERER!!!"
