

The White Lady Part 4 - Days of Sorrow

Silverlane

Down on your knees you ask for prayers to end your pain
"Help me, please!"
you keep on saying it again Your days of penance seem like a point of no return Eternal vengeance starts to hurt and burn

There's this yearning deep inside you There's nothing else you wanna do

"Can you save my soul
from these days of sorrow?
Can you take away
all these years of pain?
Can you save my soul?
'Cause there's no tomorrow on the other side There's another life waiting for me..."

You listen to (the) silence and watch the darkness every night Your last desire is to step into the light

Pain keeps on burning deep inside you
The only thing you wanna do

You feel this pain still deep inside you
There's nothing else you wanna do
