

Truth & Temptation

Silverstein

You can't stop it now,
It's already in motion.
Don't try to fight it now,
You're already dead again
She's taken over,
Snuffed out the life you had,
The life you had.
It's coming down to this,
Another year you can't have back.
You're a little older,
Your lies a little bolder.
You've tried to change,
But the secret caged inside
Won't escape you.
You should have stopped and told her,
Your heart had gotten colder,
And make the change.
It's locked way deep inside,
You can't stop it now.
