

Gun-Shy Sunshine

Silversun Pickups

Faith and praise keep locked away
Sentimental thoughts can stay
I suppose I've made mistakes
Carry on so I can lay

With your gun-shy sunshine
With my headstrong highlights

Brace yourself for old remains
Later on I will behave
Made a home for future stakes
Rest assured we'll be okay

With your gun-shy sunshine
With my headstrong highlights
With our hands drawn and eyes dried, hands drawn and eyes dried
What you don't understand (hands drawn and eyes dried)
I'm a modular man

Pretend you care to remember
Pretend you care to remember
Remember when to resemble man

With your gun-shy sunshine
With my headstrong highlights
With our hands drawn and eyes dried, hands drawn and eyes dried
What you don't understand (hands drawn and eyes dried)
I'm a modular man
