

I'll Just Remember You

Simon Carly

I don't remember day and night
Don't remember any fights
I don't remember what to do
I just remember you

I can't recall the summer breeze
Whispers through the apple trees
And I forget the songs I knew
I just remember you

Time to go on
So much life to be lived on my own
Someday I'll wake up as good as new

Then I'll remember skies of blue
Handsome boys I almost knew
I try my best but I know it's true
I'll just remember you
