

Quiet Evening

Simon Carly

Quiet
Such a quiet
It's a quiet

Won't somebody tell me
Won't you let me know
Quiet evening
I'm sleepy
And I'm holding on
I've got nowhere to go
Quiet evening
You know
You still have friends
And they'll be
Waiting for you

Quiet evening
You've been longing for
Quiet evening
You've been longing
Take this night
For the sake
Of your soul

Moonlight calls
And it covers you
There's nothing left
But this hidden view
Quiet evening
Cars roll by
On that motorway
Others may
Have a lot to say
Quiet evening
You know
You still have friends
And they'll be
Waiting for you

Quiet evening
You've been longing for
Quiet evening
You've been longing
Some people might stay up
Til it's light
But take this night
For the sake of your soul

Quiet
It's a quiet
Quiet
It's a quiet
